June 2, 2007

Comments Re: Docket # R-1286

The Changes pertaining to credit card Companies do not go far enough. They need to be entirely rewritten to be more fair to Consumers.

It needs to be made easier to get refunds for fraudulent charges. They also should not be able to raise interest rates on an account when you are having problems with another.

Christine A. Marquette
Ft. Lauderdale, FL