NONCONFIDENTIAL // EXTERNAL

I object to the Federal Reserve not providing information to the public as requested. When the organization solely responsible for the extreme inequality in what was once the wealthiest nation on earth tells people they are going to do even more of what's failed spectacularly while simultaneously keeping them in the dark, mark my words, there will be a revolution. People are waking up far and wide to the greatest theft in human history. The Federal Reserve is entering very dangerous waters ahead. Proceed with extreme caution.
