Compliance with Order

1. Within 30 days of this Order, the board of directors of the Firm shall appoint a committee comprised of members of senior management (the “Committee”) to monitor and coordinate compliance with the provisions of this Order. The Committee shall meet quarterly, keep detailed minutes of each meeting, and shall annually submit to the Board of Governors and to the board of directors of the Firm written progress reports detailing the form and manner of all actions taken to secure compliance with this Order and the results thereof.

Internal Controls and Compliance Program

2. Within 90 days of this Order, the Firm shall submit to the Board of Governors an acceptable written plan, and timeline for implementation, to enhance the effectiveness of the internal controls and compliance functions regarding the identification, monitoring, and control of confidential supervisory information. Such plan shall be reviewed for effectiveness by the Firm's internal audit function and shall, at a minimum, address, consider, and include:

(a) enhanced policies governing the identification, receipt and use of confidential supervisory information;

(b) controls necessary to ensure the proper identification and management of confidential supervisory information; and

(c) measures to ensure management's effective oversight of Goldman Sachs personnel's compliance with policies, procedures, and internal controls, including monitoring of employee emails on the Firm's internal email systems, designed to deter and detect potential employee misconduct in connection with use or dissemination of confidential supervisory information.

3. Within 90 days of this Order, the Firm shall submit to the Board of Governors an acceptable written plan, and timeline for implementation, for the training of all appropriate Goldman Sachs personnel regarding the restrictions, controls and legal requirements governing the use of confidential supervisory information. At minimum, the plan shall include:

(a) a requirement that training be conducted and documented no less frequently than annually;

(b) procedures to escalate to appropriate firm personnel if the unauthorized use of confidential supervisory information is identified; and

(c) procedures to timely inform appropriate Goldman Sachs personnel of any new requirements, restrictions, or supervisory guidance from the Board of Governors regarding confidential supervisory information.

Deletion of Confidential Supervisory Information

4. Within 90 days of this Order, the Firm shall certify to the Board of Governors that all documents containing confidential supervisory information of which the Firm is aware or becomes aware that the Firm obtained without appropriate regulatory authorization have been de-referenced from the Firm's internal systems and rendered inaccessible by Firm personnel. To the extent confidential supervisory information covered by this Order may subsequently be restored or rendered accessible for any purpose, the Firm shall notify the Board of Governors prior to such information being restored or accessible by Firm personnel.

Assessment of Civil Money Penalty

5. The Board of Governors hereby imposes a civil money penalty on the Firm in the amount of $36,300,000.00 which shall be paid upon the execution of this Order by Fedwire transfer of immediately available funds to the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, ABA No. 1000033, beneficiary, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. This penalty is a penalty paid to a government agency for a violation of law for purposes of 26 U.S.C. § 162(f) and 26 C.F.R. § 1.162-21. The Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, on behalf of the Board of Governors, shall distribute this sum to the U.S. Department of the Treasury, pursuant to section 8(i) of the FDI Act (12 U.S.C. § 1818(i)).

Accountability for Employees Involved in Misconduct

7. The Firm shall not in the future directly or indirectly retain any individual as an officer, employee, agent, consultant, or contractor of the Firm or of any affiliate of the Firm who, based on the investigative record compiled by U.S. authorities, has done all of the following: (i) participated in the illegal conduct described in this Order; (ii) been subject to formal disciplinary action as a result of Goldman Sachs's internal disciplinary review or performance review in connection with the conduct described herein; and (iii) has been separated from or has had his or her employment terminated by the Firm.

The Firm shall continue to fully cooperate with and provide substantial assistance to the Board of Governors, including but not limited to, the provision of information, testimony, documents, records, and other tangible evidence and perform analyses as directed by the Board of Governors in connection with the investigations of whether separate enforcement actions should be taken against individuals who are or were institution-affiliated parties of the Firm and who were involved in the misconduct underlying this Order. For purposes of clarity and not limitation, substantial assistance as used in this Order means the Firm will use its best efforts, as determined by the Board of Governors, to make available for interviews or testimony, as requested by the Board of Governors, present or former officers, directors, employees, agents and consultants of the Firm, to the extent permitted by law. This obligation includes, but is not limited to, sworn testimony pursuant to administrative subpoena as well as interviews with regulatory authorities.
