Reporting Panel

The Shared National Credit Program (SNC) was established in 1977 by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency to provide an efficient and consistent review and classification of any large syndicated loan. Today, the program covers any loan or loan commitment of at least $20 million that is shared by three or more supervised institutions. The agencies' review is conducted annually, usually in May and June.

Series Information

The SNC program was established in 1977 to provide an efficient and consistent review and classification of SNCs, which includes any loan or formal loan commitment, and any asset such as real estate, stocks, notes, bonds, and debentures taken as debts previously contracted, extended to borrowers by a federally supervised institution, its subsidiaries, and affiliates that aggregates to $20 million or more and is shared by three or more unaffiliated supervised institutions. Many of these loan commitments are also shared with FBOs and nonbanks, including securitization pools, hedge funds, insurance companies, and pension funds.

The SNBX Bilateral related data were added in 09-30-2014.

Public Release

Aggregate data are published in several statistical releases and publicly available at the Shared National Credit page on the Federal Reserve Board public website. The web address is – (<http://www.federalreserve.gov/econresdata/releases/snc/snc.htm>).
