Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

I am a member of the 60 and over group and I am dam mad at what has happened to our credit card arrangements. At one time we got the interest back on our income tax, then suddenly Congress took that away and allowed the credit cards to increased our interest rates.

We are the people that are hurt for buying into the scam of how easy it was/is to use plastic. Shame on us for allowing those who we elected to represent our needs to stay in office, after turning on us for the ones that lobby for their souls and our money. We will never be able to pay off these credit cards because our representatives have no courage nor integrity.

No matter how much I send, the credit card people increase the interest, finance charges and whatever else they do.

Please stop the sickness and the greed, give the consumer some respect for having trusted those who now have scamed us.

Ms. Cleo Johnson

Sincerely,

Ms. Cleo Johnson
