

From: Bill

Subject: Electronic Fund Transfers

---

Comments:

Banks should not be allowed require consumers to "opt out" of over draft protection. Consumers should always have the option and responsibility to make this decision. Banks should decline any over drawn account that does not have over draft protection, a little embarrassment is not a bad thing.

Thank You