

From: Sarah Pieczynski
Subject: Electronic Fund Transfers

---

Comments:

The opt-in version of overdraft protection should be the only way a checking account is protected. It is just as big a scam for banks to manipulate transactions that are posting and automatically cover overdrafts with an exorbitant fee as it is for someone to steal my bank account information and withdraw money in a fraudulent transaction. We need protection from the overwhelming greed that has blanketed corporate America.

Sarah Pieczynski