Sirs;

I am writing to let you know of my preference regarding the Opt-In Rule for Automatic Overdraft Protection from banks and other lending corporations. I would like to see a more consumer friendly attitude from the banking industry. As it stands now, Banks do everything in their power to squeeze as much hard-earned money from it's customers as they are allowed to. It's time for the powers in Washington stand up for the consumer and stop this practice of gouging the very customers it's supposed to provide service to.

I want the Opt-In Choice Available for Automatic Overdraft Protection.

Respectfully Yours,
