

From: Brian Bradley
Subject: Electronic Fund Transfers

Comments:

To Whom It May Concern,

I am in full support of regulations that require banks to give consumers the choice to opt out of automatic overdraft payments. Many of us would like to just have the payment declined. This would be an incentive step to make people more responsible for management of their financial affairs.
Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Brian Bradley,