

From: Rich Noordam
Subject: Electronic Fund Transfers

Comments:

The Opt-In methodology is the fairest to consumers because they then have a CHOICE.

Opt-Out is a bad choice for consumers, great for the bank. The banks should most definitely be changed to Opt-In and they(the banking industry) should be required to modify their procedures for handling overdrafts.

Richard Noordam

Idaho