Regulation E - Electronic Fund Transfers [R-1343] These simple, minimal rules are such a no-brainer, I almost didn't comment. But given the undue power banks have over regulators, I decided I couldn't assume the outcome would be based on good common sense. So here's my comment: These rules are straightforward and common sense, and should be part of every bank's business rules without regulation. But since many banks can't seem to act in anything other than a predatory manner, we need regulation. Pass these rules -- they are the least that should be done to ensure fairness.
