

From: James E. Danise
Subject: Electronic Fund Transfers

Comments:

I find that the banking industry is mainly concerned with making money anyway possible without any concern for their customers. I would welcome legislation that would reign in this type of behavior and give the banking public the ability to chose what options they would like and not have the banking industry assume for us what we desire.

Best Regards,

James E. Danise"