

From: Becky Lemem
Subject: Electronic Fund Transfers

Comments:

Banks should let us choose to opt in if we want over draft on our checking accounts.

Payments should be smallest to largest if processed on the same day

If there are insufficient funds in a checking account, there should be a "do you want to continue" question, like there is when you use an ATM that is not in your banks organization.

Over draft fees are a blatant rip off.