It happened to me I was thinking I had 90.00 in the bank to feed the family for the rest of the week and I called to make sure and it said that I was -779.00. They had took it on there self to pay it knowing I only had 90.00 dollars in my account. I call and they did drop 60.00 in fees but I am still OD 719.00 thank you so much.

Thank you
