

From: Kimberly Johnson
Subject: Electronic Fund Transfers

---

Comments:

Name: Kimberly Johnson
Email Address:
Date Submitted: 03/30/2009

Hi- I heard on the TODAY Show that the Fed is considering restricting fees that banks can charge. The last I checked, banks are still private businesses and I do not believe that the government should be interfering with their (or any other private) business. I realize it is a fine line, but there should be a line between regulating and dictating. Please do not get involved with limiting bank fees.