

From: Michele Riganese
Subject: Electronic Fund Transfers

Comments:

Name: michele riganese
Email Address:
Date Submitted: 03/30/2009

I would like something done about the banks requiring that you have a minimum in your account, savings or banking(shouldn't matter), and charging fees if your balance falls below that minimum. I feel it's taking advantage of customers and it has become a standard at most banks I've looked at. Please make laws that abolish and prevent banks from requiring a minimum balance be maintained and charging it's customers when that balance falls below their requirement.