

From: Adrian E. Armendano
Subject: Electronic Fund Transfers

Comments:

I feel is unfair for bank to profet in such a dishonest way from their customers. We the customer should have the right to choose if we want such protection and be given options in the matter fair treatment. Banking has already gotten away with enough and is time they pay dues for their misconduct like a person would at the end its people who make policy.