I'm with Bank of American, and am tired of them taking my money. If you have an incoming deposit, it will be pending, sometimes for a day, at least. But, all of the deductions come out immediately. I've been charged a $35.00 overdraft fee for a $5.00 deduction, but a direct deposit is pending for almost a $1,000.00. Needless to say, I've lost quite a bit of money to them; and I feel cheated. They also put larger items thru first, causing multiple overdraft fees on smaller items.
