

From: Jake Friel, Renfrew, OR
Subject: Electronic Fund Transfers

---

Comments:

I am writing to ask that there be something done to regulate banking fees. Banks are currently taking advantage of customers by changing the way they charge fees and more importantly how they handle account transactions. Banks routinely delay posting deposits in favor of posting pending payments in order to charge overdraft fees. Fees for ATM use change routinely and are excessive since banks are also charging for use of a teller. I am asking that legislation be passed that protects consumers from aggressive bank fees.

William and Donna Friel
Renfrew PA 16053