Federal Reserve Board

Dear Federal Reserve Board:

I have had about $450 stolen by the bank (Washington Mutual) before I knew that my debit card would not max out. It is outrageous that people one is trusting with one's OWN money use this trust as an opportunity to steal one's finances. We have now given the banks additional money and it is frankly time some of them failed and the rest be so regulated that such outright robbery is impossible. I would be for a huge class action suit to recoup these overdrafts as well.

Sincerely,

Laurance Doyle
