Federal Reserve Board

Dear Federal Reserve Board:

I was just nailed for an overdraft fee of $70 for being $1.33 under funded in my checking account. I'm on Social Security and can't afford that kind of money especially since I only get paid once a month. I tried to get the bank to wave the fee which they did wave half of the fee since it wasn't the banks' fault for the overdraft, but that was still $35 I could have used on groceries for which I'll be short now. I really think this is a manner of highway robbery

Sincerely,

Donald Heller
