I would like to be asked permission before my bank puts an overdraft protection on my account. I have been hit with large bank fees, $35.00 and then again in the next couple of days, $35.00 on my checking account. I have to go to the bank tomorrow and ask them to remove one of the fees. I called the bank. My account has only been overdrawn for 7 days but I have been charged two fees. I am trying to get the money to pay them but have no way to do so. i had an emergency with my cat- a large vet bill. Took everything I had. The bank is TD Banknorth.
