Comments:

My bank notified me that this proposed regulation could possibly cause them to cancel the check card rewards program. We have a small but growing company and we rely heavily on those reward points. We do a lot of spending over the course of a year (in the hundreds of thousands) and we use those points to purchase office supplies the most important of which are computers. Eliminating the rewards program will hurt small businesses not help them. If this piece of regulation has to be implemented please do in a manner in which it does not interfere, bother or alter the credit card or check card rewards programs.
Thank you, E Johnson - COO JBM Property Management, LLC
