Privacy Act Notice

The purpose of this solicitation is to ensure that the records of individuals who are the subject of Federal Reserve Board systems of records are not wrongfully disclosed by the Board. In accordance with 12 C.F.R. § 261a.5(c), you are required to provide information that provides proof of your identity when making a request for access to records under the Privacy Act. Under this section, you may decline to file this form and instead provide either: 1) two forms of identification, including one photo identification; or 2) a notarized statement attesting to your identity. You may also certify your identity digitally through the Board's FOIA portal. If you do file this form, this form is submitted by you under 28 U.S.C. § 1746, a law that permits statements to be made under penalty of perjury as a substitute for notarization.
