Comments:

It's appalling that a government in a free country would try to inhibit an activity that is 1. victimless 2. done in a citizen's free time, with their post tax dollars, in the privacy of their own home. Furthermore, how corrupt is this law to begin with? Banning some forms of gambling but not others? Get rid of the whole thing. Stop telling me how to spend my money on my time in my home when it hurts no one. Thank you, Craig Kodman
