

From: ASKRPK@aol.com on 06/19/2007 12:30:01 PM

Subject: Truth in Lending

Universal default has to stop, it immoral(do bankers really care?) and appears on the fine line of being illegal. What does my contractual agreement with one company have to do with agreements/disputes with another company? It appears that the "Robber Barons" of the past are still alive. Universal default and the raising of rates for those 'late payments' forces people to stop paying. This has got to stop!!!!!! Bob Kwiatkowski