

From: bob clark <bjcrx@yahoo.com> on 10/01/2007 11:19:13 AM

Subject: Truth in Lending

Encouraging to see legislation defining fair treatment for credit card holders - after subprime home mortgages, this is most egregious in dishonest and complicated contract abuse bordering on outright thievery. My husband serves on the board of a lending institution and has witnessed hardworking young families most victimized. Please pass laws to unravel these contractual traps and give average people protection from heartless institutions.