Subject: Regulation Z

As a citizen I believe that the consumer always needs to be protected. I am a firm believer in working hard in an honest fashion using due diligence with my clients and living by high standards and principles. I think consumers need to be made aware of everything transpiring out of a transaction but, I too think that we need to weed out the bad element in this industry and allow those with high ethical values and morals to remain doing what they love, being a mortgage broker.

Please reconsider the referenced subject matter. Thank you.
