Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

The credit card companies have become the legalized loan sharks like the Mafia, and eventhough they don't use the physical violence tactics of the Mafia, they have been legally allowed destroy the finances of countless Americans who are already in financial trouble. Their real business plan behind closed doors is to "kick them while they're down." Their greed and lack of a moral compass is not right (almost evil)and you have the power to change that. Please do so now! I have been stung numerous times in small ways by their tactics, but luckily, I have enough financial smarts to minimize the damage. Why has their been so little interest by the news media in alerting us to these much needed rule changes?

Please do what is right for the American public. You may sleep better at night!

Sincerely,

Mr. Mark Foster
