Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

For the last several months I've been getting my credit card bill with a due date of only a week later. The credit card company continually claims it is the fault of the post office yet ALL of my other bills are received on time. Every month I was being charge a late fee even though I mail out the bill the day after receiving it. They are taking no responsibility for giving me only a week to pay a bill that they require 10 days to receive and process. Please help put an end to this.

Sincerely,

Mr. rocco matra
