Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

Banks are legally committing crimes against the public daily and nothing is done about it. Once your balance is high they go out of their way to keep it high. They'll send letters signed by phantoms claiming that if you call you can lower your rate, BUT when you call no such person exists and there is no reduction offered. In fact, they'll tell you that the mystery letter signer NEVER worked for them.

Sincerely,

Ms. Melanie Picciotti
