Subject: Regulation AA

Please reel in these Credit card companies, I almost have had to sell my home, due to the doubling of the minimum payment required monthly. When it was 100/mo OK I could handle it, then it went to 200/mo and now my budget is shot. Add in gas prices and food prices we're in trouble as consumers. I know I'm the one who uses them but based on a single monthly payment that was tolerable. Please don't let these thieves get away with this any longer, they have been without regulation far too long.
