Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

I would just like you to know that I support credit card reform. I have read of several situations where it appears that the large banks are taking advantage of their credit card holders, and it is just wrong.

The government needs to look after their citizens, rather than letting banks and other corporations play fast and loose with rules they set up with little or no oversight.
Thanks for your time.

Sincerely,

Mr. David Hart
