Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

From where I am sitting right now it looks as if every corporation and company in this country can take advantage of the people with all their strength and no one does anything.

This credit card thing is out of control and our utilities want more money even though they raked in great profits and my left over income goes down every month.

Help American people not corporations. What are you there for.

And I do not live in luxury or waste money and it looks bad from where I am still sitting.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Lorna Paisley
