Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

I object to being constantly hounded to buy more on credit. Predatory marketing must stop. I have refused and will continue to refuse to pay interest charges on debts paid off the previous month. I am shocked that my interest rates could be hiked for an unintentional and minor late payment, even though my credit rating is good. I would like to see controls put on banks and credit companies to stop these abuses, especially knowing now how uninterested they are in the well-being of their clients and how greedy they are about the well-being of their profits.

Sincerely,

Ms. NANCY PIVARUNAS
