Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

Congress works for us not the lobbyists that converge on Washington.

The rules for credit in this country patently put the people least able to afford it at the greatest disadvantage. My daughters, who did not have jobs, were inundated with credit Card offers. One of them is now paying the price for accepting such an offer. Congress needs to wake up and begin working for us, the constituents.

Sincerely,

Mr. Vincent Alvarez
