Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

This must be reigned in now! It's shameful to allow greed driven deep pockets to have free reign over credit charges to an already burdened American public. Watch and monitor holding the line on out of control credit providers. As well as government spending. Where lays your moral sense of duty to serve the very American voter who gave you your job? Trust in our government has never been so low.

Sincerely,

Ms. CARROL DENNY
