Comments:

About time! I was a Discover Card member since 1988 and had a fixed interest rate of 9.9%. In October 2007, I received notice the interest rate was going to go up on my account to 16.99%! I called and was told it was a "business decision" due to the fact I had NOT charged anything on my card in the last year. This rate, even though my credit score is above 740 and have never been late and always paid more than required. I find their "business decision" deplorable and actionable.
