Comments:

I am very please to hear that you are developing regualtons on the practices of the Credit Card industry. I have read the proposed regulations suchs as Card issuers would be prohibited from using your payments to only pay down your balances with the lowest interest rate,Credit card issuers will not be able to arbitrarily increase a the interest rate on your card and statements will have to be mailed at least 21 days before payment is due, rather than the current 14-day minimum, also I am hoping for a better disclosure of credit card fees
