Dear Email comments,

It's time the Feds stand up and send a strong signal to all credit card companies that the American public are not here to be stepped on or pushed around by these companies who are making huge profits off the backs of hard working Americans. I do not fault them from making a profit but the tactics they use are deceitful, cruel, sneaky just so the upper tier senior management can sit back on their yacht and smile at all the things and stuff he or she has without one ounce of guilt. I also urge you to turn the other way when the lobbyists come knocking. We need to run the government as the constitution stated we should and lobbyists were no part of the plan

Sincerely,

Mr. Ralph Cox
