Subject: Regulation AA

Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

Over and over I hear stories about people being tricked by their credit card companies. A friend of mine regularly pays more than the minimum on her credit cards. She pays online and she pays before the due date. Still, one company regularly says that her payments do not reach them on time. That is unfair and should not be allowed.

Please regulate the credit card companies so they are fair to the consumer.

You have the ability to do so. Do it!

Sincerely,

Dr. Saundra Bryn
