Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

I have good credit, yet every one of my credit cards has increased my interest rate to 22% or more, two are even at 30%.

For one credit card I have to pay $10 each month- even if my balance is 0$- just to keep my account open! They have recently imposed a $4.95 charge if I want to pay my bill online- though it costs them less when I do this.

I am so tired of it.

You cannot get important services, like insurance, or even a job if your credit score dips-- and so we feel forced to keep these accounts and pay the fees because closing them would drop our credit score. It's extortion, plain and simple.

Sincerely,

Ms. Donadea Rasmussen
