Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

I am getting tired of paying more than what I feel is fair interest and 'late fees'. It is time the government intervened and did something. Or is the government in the pockets of the credit card companies?

There is too much debt that can be put aside and with the state of our economy, the USA may itself go bankrupt. Help the average citizen gain back a bit of his paycheck to pay for necessities and not the HIGH interest and Late fees from credit card co's.

Sincerely,

Mr. KURT PFISTER
