Dear Email comments,

Why are the credit card companies allowed to kick us when we are down.

Our jobs continue to go disappear. Food and drug prices continue to go up to the point where we have to choose whether to get our children their medication or feed them. There are so many fees now on the credit card statements and interest has tripled that when I make a payment I still owe more the following month than I did the previous month and NONE OF THEM are charges that I have made. Please stop them now!!!!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Kim Ninmann
