Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

DO IT! Please stop the unconscionable fees and other tactics that the credit card companies use to destroy customers with outrageous late fees, rates etc. They are just unbelievably greedy and, for the most part, are not really good about solving most customers' problems. The government must lay down FAIR rules so that customers can not be financially destroyed by these egregious tactics. The credit card companies have gotten away with the financial "murder" of the public for far too long. STOP THEM. PLEASE!

Sincerely,

Mr. Robert Dagny
