Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

I am TIRED of being deluged by advertisements in the mail daily from credit card companies, making their cards sound irresistable! Many people would fall for these initial come-ons, which to me constitute "predatory lending", since the people most likely to fall for them will be the people least likely to be able to handle the debt. That's predatory capitalism, & I believe it should be regulated very strictly!

Sincerely,

Ms. ann houston
