Subject: Regulation AA

Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

I had my identity stolen. The bank (Bank of America) watched in an attempt to catch them without advising me. Later, B/A offered me $50K and 3 months later raised my interest rates because my credit score dropped due to ID theft related to their own bank! I stopped it agreeing to never use the card again.

The banking and credit card industries are out of control and predators! They need to be regulated because they do not regulate themselves preferring profit and destroying lives over reasonableness.

Sincerely,
