Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

Quit fooling around and pass the needed changes. The credit card companies are fraudulent thieves. All anyone asks is that they be honest and fair in their dealings with customers. If that is too much to ask, then make them totally illegal across the board. Just be honest... honor your commitments to your customers... the job of the feds is to PROTECT the consumer, not to legitimize the fraudulent way the credit cards do business. Just be honest. Pretty simple.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Pamela Pedersen
