Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

We have been removing restrictions from big business for years. What has it gotten us, credit card companies can raise your rates for no reason. Telephone companies, and cable companies don't have to provide broad band to everyone. Big oil bought up all of their comatition and closed small refineries and tell us there are not enough refiners so prices of fuel go up.

Enough - start protecting the average citizen instead of giving the breaks to big business so they can continue to take advantage of us.

Sincerely,

Mr. Ed Fesus
