Federal Reserve Board Email comments

Dear Email comments,

We have to play fair with credit cards - make them play fair. Bills used to be due in a month - now it's less than three weeks, and interest is charged on that time period too - we end up paying thirteen months in less than twelve. And why should an inquiry from us go against our credit? What does sending in an application have to do with our credit scores? And really! A $39 overage fee for 26 cents over the limit?? Isn't that just a bit much?

Sincerely,

Dr. sue davis
